Hailar MDL Beer Material Company joins the CMBTC as a member

WINNIPEG - The CMBTC is pleased to announce that Hailar MDL Beer Material Company of China, a leader in providing brewing raw materials, most notably malt, has joined the CMBTC as a member as of May 2014. Hailar MDL Beer Material Company has several malting facilities across China, most notably Yantai malting. The CMBTC provides a conduit to Hailar MDL Beer Material Company to provide information on malting and brewing with Canadian malting barley and serve its' Chinese customers. "This is the second international customer that has joined CMBTC in recent years, showing that the customers of Canadian malting barley find value in membership in the CMBTC, helping them to source Canadian barley and produce the highest quality malts and beer" said Managing Director Rob McCaig.

The CMBTC, which started in August 2000, is an independent, non-profit organization funded by members of the malting barley and malt industry. The CMBTC is the focal point for applied malting and brewing research and provides technical support to members and clients. CMBTC facilities include a state-of-the-art pilot malting plant and pilot brewery, located in the Canadian Grain Commission Building.
