Fedoruk Seeds joins the CMBTC as a member

WINNIPEG - The CMBTC is pleased to announce that Fedoruk Seeds, a leader in providing certified malting barley seed to producers has joined the CMBTC as a member as of June 2012. Fedoruk Seeds is a family owned business located on the north side of Kamsack, SK. It has its roots in a multi-generation farm owned by the Fedoruk Family. Fedoruk Seeds grow and process high quality pedigreed seed. Their objective is to provide the highest quality of seed to their customers and are continually seeking out varieties that are well suited to the many different growing conditions in Western Canada.

The CMBTC provides a conduit to Fedoruk Seeds to serve its' customers and that support allows CMBTC to continue to support the Canadian malting barley industry. The CMBTC, which started in August 2000, is an independent, non-profit organization funded by members of the malting barley and malt industry. The CMBTC is the focal point for applied malting and brewing research and provides technical support to members and clients. CMBTC facilities include a state-of-the-art pilot malting plant and pilot brewery, located in the Canadian Grain Commission Building.
